Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The two gospels of Palm Sunday swing dramatically from one extreme to the other. In the first, Jesus enters Jerusalem to cheering crowds. People take off their own cloaks to soften his way. It appears that his triumph is at hand and that his reign is about to begin. But he is not there to conquer the occupying Roman forces; he is there to conquer death. And to do so, he will need to go through death, which brings us to the passion narrative we hear later in the same Mass. The path to Jesus' triumph is not a direct one, but he comes to conquer and rule not on human terms but in ways far beyond what we can imagine for ourselves.

To Experience: During his lifetime, Jesus experiences the full range of human emotions. He has better and worse days; he laughs and weeps and gets angry. In the passion narrative, we see him experience mental anguish and physical torture and eventually even the death that he does not deserve in his sinlessness. God is with him through all of it, and because Jesus remains aware of God's presence he is able to endure all this in love. God is with us, too, in all the joys and sorrows of our lives.

1. How can you imitate Jesus' commitment to self-sacrificial love?
2. How can you stay mindful of God's presence even in the midst of suffering? How do you remember God through seasons of sorrow or pain?

Palm Sunday: From the Crowd to the Cross - A Journey Toward Eucharistic Glory Invitation to Begin a Spiritual Pilgrimage

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week, the most sacred time in our Church's calendar. We begin with joyful shouts of "Hosanna!" as Jesus enters Jerusalem - but soon we walk with Him through His Passion and death. The Gospel leads us from glory to suffering, from the cheering crowd to the silence of the Cross. This week, the inner silence is very important to walk with Jesus. We are invited to maintain silence externally as well as internally.

Palm Sunday invites us to journey with Christ - not just to remember His suffering, but to allow it to transform us. As we enter this holiest of weeks, I invite you not only to walk with Jesus to Calvary, but also to begin a new journey of love, renewal, and commitment - a spiritual pilgrimage to the heart of the Eucharist.

As part of our parish's preparation for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi (June 15, 2025), I invite you to join us in reading the Book - 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory. This inspiring book will guide us over 33 days through daily reflections, stories of Eucharistic saints, and short prayers that lead us closer to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

This pilgrimage is a powerful way to renew our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity - in the Eucharist. As the Church invites us into a time of Eucharistic Renewal, this book will help each of us rediscover the beauty, mystery, and life-changing power of the Mass.

We will begin the 33-day journey on Wednesday, May 14, so that we may all have our consecration together at Mass on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 15.

This book is an Easter Gift from our Bishop David L. Ricken. Our Bishop invites each one of us to read and have a spiritual pilgrimage with Jesus. The books will be at the back of the Church beginning Easter Vigil night. You are invited to take and participate in the journey with Jesus.

This is a personal journey, but it is also a community experience. We encourage families to read together, parish groups to discuss together, and individuals to share insights and graces received. As one Body in Christ, let us walk together toward a deeper appreciation of the Eucharist, the source and summit of our Christian life.

Consecration on Corpus Christi

At the end of the 33-day journey, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - Corpus Christi. On that day, we will have a special time of consecration during Mass.

This consecration is not just a moment - it's a milestone. It is the fruit of your journey, a renewal of your baptismal promises, and a public witness to the world that you belong to Christ, and you believe in His Real Presence.

Take the book and start reading on May 14: Just 5-10 minutes a day of prayerful reading.

Make the journey your own: Reflect alone, with your family, or in a parish group.

Join the Consecration on Corpus Christi: A special moment to renew your love for Jesus in the Eucharist.

As we hold palms in our hands this Sunday, may we also hold a renewed desire in our hearts - to follow Christ more closely, to know worthily in the Eucharist. Let us take this step together, as one parish family, toward Eucharistic glory.

Wishing you a grace-filled Holy Week,
 Fr. Josuwa

Called to Share Bread for Life

Holy Week, a sacred time in the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others. Let draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and the joy of the resurrection to the world. Bible Study

Meets Tuesdays, 9am at Holy Trinity.
One hour sessions: consists of listening to a recording by an informative and entertaining Bible scholar. Casual discussion follows. Delicious baked goods are provided by the exceptional bakers in the group.

Over the past 6 years, the Bible Study group has studied all the historical books of the Bible (quite an accomplishment!)

Beginning April 15, we will be studying the Book of Job, the first of the poetical books of the Bible. For anyone interested in Bible Study, this would be a good time to jump in, as Job is really a stand-alone book and no prior knowledge of Bible history is needed. The message of The Book of Job: Even in the face of profound suffering, we should trust in God's wisdom and character, even when His way seems mysterious and incomprehensible.

12 Ways to Make Holy Week More Meaningful

1. THINK PRAYER. If you have to work or go to school during Holy Week, think about how you can incorporate prayer breaks into each day.
2. MAKE AN ADDITIONAL SACRIFICE by fasting and abstaining from meat on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday in addition to Good Friday.
3. DON'T WATCH TELEVISION from sundown on Holy Thursday until Easter morning.
4. GO to confession.
5. SET ASIDE 10 minutes every day to read Passion accounts in the Gospels.
6. Make it a point to FORGIVE someone on Good Friday.
7. PRAY the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary.
8. OFFER UP any pain or difficulties you experience during Holy Week and unite your sufferings with the pain of Christ.
9. PRAY the Stations of the Cross.

10. ATTEND all of the Triduum liturgies.
11. INVITE family members, friends and neighbors — especially people who have strayed from the church — to come to church with you.
12. VOLUNTEER to help decorate your parish on Holy Saturday for Easter.

Holy Week Quiz

How much do you remember about the people and events of Holy Week?
Here's a little quiz to test your knowledge.
The answers are at the bottom of this page.

1. Where did the Agony in the Garden take place?
2. Who betrayed Jesus?
3. Who denied Jesus three times?
4. Who ordered Jesus to be scourged?
5. What criminal was released instead of Jesus?
6. How many Stations of the Cross are there?
7. How many times does Jesus fall on the way to Calvary?
8. Who helped Jesus carry his cross?
9. Who wiped the face of Jesus?
10. What did the sign on the cross say?
11. Who made arrangements for the burial of Jesus?
12. Who was the first to discover that Jesus had risen?

Holy Week Customs

 Palm crosses: From medieval times, people have believed that blessed palms formed into the shape of a cross would protect them from danger. The easiest way to make a cross from blessed palms is to cut two pieces of the palm, arrange in the shape of a cross, put a thumbtack in the middle, and attach the cross to a doorway or a bulletin board.

Coloring eggs: Decorating eggs was a pagan symbol of rebirth at springtime for the Romans, Greeks, Egyptians, Persians and even the Chinese. Christians adopted the colored egg as a symbol of new life which comes with the Resurrection.

Sweet breads: In many cultures, Holy Week was traditionally a time for baking sweet breads, cakes and pastries that would be served on Easter Sunday.

Easter lilies: The tradition of buying Easter lilies during Holy Week for use as decorations in homes and churches came into practice in the 1800s. The white flower is a symbol of purity and new life that heralds the resurrection of Jesus.

Holy Water blessings: Some families bring holy water containers to Mass on Easter so they can bring home some Easter water, which is blessed during the Easter Vigil, to bless their homes.

The Sacred Triduum

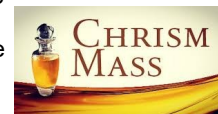

Easter Triduum

The word "Triduum" comes from the Latin word meaning "three days," and encompasses the three most sacred days in the Church year. It begins at sundown on Holy Thursday, reaches a high point at the Easter Vigil, and concludes with evening prayer at sundown on Easter Sunday. The liturgical celebrations during the Triduum on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday are rich with symbolism and flow from one to another in a seamless way. While it may appear as if these liturgies are separate and distinct, they are actually intended to be one continuous celebration that commemorates the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. For this reason, Catholics are encouraged to observe the entire Triduum by attending all of the liturgies.

The Chrism Mass

During Holy Week bishops bless sacred oils in the diocesan cathedral at a special liturgy known as the Chrism Mass. The oil of chrism is used during baptisms, confirmation, ordination and the consecration of altars. The oil of catechumens is used at the Easter Vigil. The oil of the sick is used to anoint people during the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. The oils are then distributed to the parishes for sacramental celebrations throughout the year. As part of the liturgical reforms of Vatican II, the renewal of priestly promises was incorporated into the Chrism Mass. The Chrism Mass is an ancient celebration that traditionally takes place on Holy Thursday morning. But in recent years, many dioceses celebrate the Chrism Mass on an evening earlier in Holy Week so that more people can attend.
