"I Have Come to Set the Earth on Fire"

When we hear the word fire, what comes to our minds first? Our minds may first think about forest blazes, scorching heatwaves, or destructive flames. Indeed, physical fire can cause devastating harm – destroying homes, forests, and even lives. Yet, in the Gospel, Jesus speaks of a different kind of fire: the fire of love, truth, and the Holy Spirit.

This divine fire does not destroy; it purifies. It does not consume life; it gives life. When Jesus says, "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!", He is expressing His deep desire for His followers to be ignited with passion for God and His Kingdom.

To "set the earth on fire" means to live in such a way that our faith burns brightly in a dark world – through compassion for the poor, courage in the face of injustice, and forgiveness in a world of resentment. It's not enough for this fire to remain in our hearts; it must spread through our words, actions, and witness.

One saint who lived this Gospel verse is St. Catherine of Siena. She famously said, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire." Born in 1347, she lived during times of political division, disease, and Church crisis. Yet her faith burned so strongly that she inspired popes, challenged rulers, and drew countless souls closer to Christ. Her fire was the zeal of love – a flame that purified and renewed hearts.

Today, each of us is called to carry that same fire. Imagine a parish where every family lives with such conviction that their neighbors cannot help but notice the light of Christ shining in them. This is how we "set the earth on fire" – not by force, but by the warmth of God's love radiating from our lives.

We need to draw people to Christ by our faith filled lives – through our close relationship with God, our compassionate hearts, and our service to the poor in the world.

Let's pray: Lord Jesus, ignite in me the fire of Your love, so that I may set the earth on fire for You.

God's Blessings!
Father Josuva

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This is one of the gospel's more challenging passages. The Jesus who wants to set fire to the earth and divide families does not seem to mesh with the Jesus who offers us an easy yoke and rest in him. But two things can be true at once. It is true that the gospel is a source of joy and rest. It is also true that it places a burden on us. As we journey through this life, broken as it is by sin's effects, we will encounter trials because of our faith in Jesus. We will at times have to make a choice between what is easy and what is right. Jesus does not promise that following him will come without cost, but he does promise that it will be worth it.

To Experience: If we are not experiencing any great suffering because of our faith, perhaps we can strive to stand in greater solidarity with those who are suffering. Perhaps we can find a way to make a sacrifice that will relieve their burden, even if it adds to ours. There is no shortage of suffering to tend to in this world; which sorrows move your heart with compassion? How might you receive this as a call to ease someone else's burden?

1. What do you think of Jesus' words in this gospel? How do they challenge you?
2. While we are not necessarily called to take on unnecessary suffering, is there a way you could take on a bit of someone else's burden? How might you be called to relieve the suffering of someone else?

Our Young People Need Your Support

We are seeing Jesus enter the lives of so many young men and women on their faith journey. Have you made your gift to help our young people? So far this year, Holy Trinity has raised $915 and St. Gregory has raised $435. Let us see if we can increase our support of this important part of the mission of the Diocese of Green Bay, and let's help our young people say "yes" to a vocation to the priesthood or religious life.

Please return the pledge card through the mail. Whatever you are able to give is greatly appreciated.
