Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: With this famous sermon, Jesus makes clear that God does not measure success in the same way that we do. Things wealth, satisfaction, good cheer, and a solid reputation may seem like signs of God's favor, but they are not the things that ultimately matter. God instead promises to be present in a special way to those who are poor, hungry, weeping, and reviled. That is not to say that God does not love those who have more, but God seeks out those who are suffering and offers them particular love. God always stands on the side of those who are oppressed, and we are called to do the same.

To Experience: None of us stands fully on one side of the Beatitudes or the other. All of us experience some kind of suffering in this life and thus can be assured of God's love and care. Most of us also experience some kind of privilege that provides us benefits at the expense of others. The effects of such privilege are often subtle, and we may not realize we are enjoying them. But those of us with privilege are called to identify it and step outside the systems that enable it so that God's justice can come to be.

1. What suffering or lack in your life makes you doubt the presence of God? How could you come to find God present in that very thing?
2. What privileges do you carry through this life? How could you push back on systems that benefit you in order to stand in solidarity with those they oppress?
3. From what do you need to detach in order to focus more wholeheartedly on God?

Hear to Serve

The Altar of Sports

In America, sports began as a form of entertainment and a change from the hectic work week, but they have evolved into a massive industry and, for some, an outright obsession. A drive on Lombardi Avenue reveals homes adorned in green and gold, and thousands of cars tailgating long before a game, demonstrating that for many, this has gone beyond mere entertainment.

This enthusiasm for sports is not limited to adults, and I have concerns about the impact this has on our children's sports programs. Don't misunderstand me; sports offer valuable lessons, teaching kids how to interact with different personalities and encouraging them to unplug from electronic devices. They provide many benefits, but at the youth level, particularly in grade school, sports have begun to dominate already busy lives. What should be a time for kids to learn skills and enjoy themselves has turned highly competitive. It is as if we expect every child to become a professional athlete. It's no longer just about playing for school teams; there are now additional sports leagues sponsored by high schools (including Catholic high schools) and various organizations that occupy most of the year, not to mention summer camps.

This situation presents two major issues. First of all, it detracts from the Lord's Day. Our churches are empty, while the bleachers are packed, forcing parents into difficult choices. It's not just Sundays. Wednesday evenings, once reserved for Religious Education, are also being affected.

As parents, when we baptize our children, we make a commitment to raise them as children of God and to nurture their place in His Divine Family. It's easy to say, "Just go to Mass," but life is challenging. We must recognize the importance of dedicating Sundays to God. Sundays are for worship and expressing gratitude, receiving Jesus in His Word and in the Eucharist, and filling the deep longings of our hearts and souls with Him.

While sports offer many benefits to children, they cannot provide the inner peace that we all crave as human beings. This is why many kids experience burnout by high school. They end up deflated like a basketball that has sat untouched in a garage for years. As St. Augustine said, "Our hearts are restless till they rest in you, Lord." We were created in God's image, and only He can satisfy the desires within us.

Our readings this weekend remind us that we are to set our hearts and actions on what is most pleasing to God. We are to put first the things of God and not put our hope in the things of the flesh. We are to teach our children that the reward of eternal life is more important than any trophy won in a sports tournament.

Maybe it is time for Catholic parents with children in sports to come together and firmly request that Sunday mornings (at least) be free of practices, games, and tournaments. As for the rest of the week, keep Christ at the center of your family life.

Let us all pray that we find the right Altar to worship at.

Viva Christo Rey, Deacon Gary

Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord.

By the power of the Holy Spirit, may we grow together in faith and be witnesses to the love of God.

Mass Changes Effective March 8 & 9

A new process will be followed for the presentation of gifts and for the commentators. This will begin during the Lenten season:

Presentation Gifts – Greeters will be responsible for asking parishioners to bring up gifts but may do it themselves if they wish. Presenters will be bringing gifts up at the same time ushers go up to begin their collection. Once collection is complete, an usher may bring the basket to the sanctuary without handing it to Father or Deacon.

Commentators will remain in the back of church until about a minute before Mass begins. They will then proceed to the front of church, make the announcements, and then return to the back of church for the procession. If they choose to they are welcome to return to their seats after the reading and/or intentions are complete or they may stay in the sanctuary. If preferred, they may remain in their seats until it is time for the reading.

Indoor Walking Available SG Parish Center is open for walking. Hours are Mon-Thurs 8am-noon and Mon-Wed 12:30pm-4pm (please call in advance for the afternoon to guarantee access and availability). There is no charge for walking.

Looking for a winter activity? The pickleball courts in the SG Parish Center gym are available for rent. Never played before? Equipment is available to use and rules are available for reference. Call the parish office for availability.

St. Valentine

Patronage of St. Valentine

St. Valentine is the patron saint of beekeepers, engaged couples, those with epilepsy, happy marriages, love, travelers, and young people.

St. Valentine in Art

St. Valentine is most often pictured in red clothes holding a palm branch – both of which are symbols of martyrdom. At other times, he is wearing the clerics of a priest. He sometimes carries a small cross or book, representing the Christian faith that he preached. In addition, he may be shown with birds near him (lovebirds), or in the act of healing the sight of the jailer's daughter.

BISHOP'S APPEAL 2025

"Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven." — Luke 6:20-23

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the Beatitudes with us. The Beatitudes are an incredible source of hope. By living with humility, obedience, and gratitude, an abundance of blessings will follow. This is how we can find eternal hope in Him while sharing Jesus with others. This is what Bringing Hope to the World is all about. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps essential diocesan ministries share hope throughout our Diocese, especially in our faith formation programs.

Parish faith formation programs walk with children on their faith journey and introduce them to their source of hope: Jesus. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal provides training, resources, and support to equip thousands of catechists with the tools they need to share Jesus with our youth.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal also supports the formation of deacons, so they can walk with our parishioners on their faith journey. Missionary disciples are formed through Entrust Retreats and the Missionary Leadership Institute. This and even more is made possible because of your generosity to the Bishop's Appeal.

To give to the Appeal, contact our parish office, use the pledge card you received at home, or visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.com/give to make your gift.

Does the Bishop's Appeal Pay the Bishop's Salary or Any Legal Settlements?

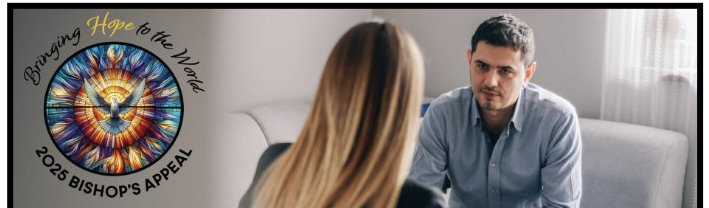

The Bishop's Appeal is an annual campaign that supports the ministries of the Diocese. It does not pay the Bishop's salary and has never been used to pay any legal settlements. The Bishop's Appeal provides support to diocesan ministries reaching out to thousands of people each year. These ministries include Catholic Charities, Catholic schools, and On Mission, to name a few.

It is our continuing pledge to you to use all the funds received during the Bishop's Appeal to provide these services and meet the needs described on our website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/appeal. Thank you for your generous support.

Bishop's Appeal 2025

A Christian steward is "One who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord."

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

Bringing Hope to the World

Many of our brothers and sisters struggle with stress, depression, loneliness, and financial insecurity.

Through it all, Catholic Charities continues to care for those in need.

With your support of the Bishop's Appeal, you will help us serve even more people across the diocese.
