Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: In this gospel, Jesus preaches the importance of being careful with our trust. Many voices claim to offer spiritual leadership (now more than ever with the rise of influencer culture), but many of these do not see clearly enough to act as trustworthy guides. It is, of course, unrealistic to find a human teacher who is without sin or who will be perfect at all times. But Jesus offers us a parameter for discerning a good teacher: "every tree is known by its own fruit." When we find that someone's life and teaching bear good fruit, we can be reasonably confident that their heart is also good—and that God is at work in them.

To Experience: It is often easy to get caught up in relationships that are fun or attractive but which do not bear good fruit for our spiritual lives. Sometimes even good people can draw out the worst in each other, falling into patterns of exclusivity or unkindness as a form of amusement. Such relationships are not bearing good fruit and will not ultimately sustain us through the challenges of Christian life.

1. What relationships bring you closer to God? What fruits do they bear that help you know God is near?
2. When our vision is distorted, we cannot see clearly. What "beams" might be in your eye, keeping you from seeing the truth of who God is?
3. The image of being a thriving, fruit-bearing tree runs through the readings today. What fruits might God be calling you to bear?

Seeing Clearly with the Heart of Christ

Dear Friends in Christ,

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus offers us profound wisdom on discipleship, self-awareness, and the fruitfulness of our lives. He begins with a simple yet striking question: "Can a blind person guide a blind person?" This reminds us that before we attempt to correct or lead others, we must first ensure that our own vision is clear. The plank in our own eyes must be removed before we can help our brothers and sisters with their splinters. This is a call to humility - recognizing our own faults before pointing out the fallings of others.

Jesus then speaks of a disciple not being above the teacher. This teaches us that we are all lifelong learners in faith. We must constantly seek to be formed by Christ, allowing His wisdom to shape us. Only when we imitate the Master can we be effective in guiding others. Finally, Jesus gives us the image of a tree and its fruit: "A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit." Our words and actions are the natural outflow of what fills our hearts. If our hearts are full of love, faith, and mercy, our lives will reflect those virtues. But if our hearts are filled with bitterness, pride, or judgment, that too will be evident.

This passage calls us to examine our hearts: Are we truly rooted in Christ? Are we nurturing our spiritual lives so that we bear good fruit? As we gather in faith each week, let us allow Christ to open our eyes, transform our hearts, and guide us to be beacons of His light in the world.

May our words, actions, and lives reflect the goodness of the One who teaches us!

*Thank You,
Fr. Josue*

Mass Changes Effective March 8 & 9

A new process will be followed for the presentation of gifts and for the commentators. This will begin during the Lenten season:

Presentation Gifts – Greeters will be responsible for asking parishioners to bring up gifts but may do it themselves if they wish. Presenters will be bringing gifts up at the same time ushers go up to begin their collection. Once collection is complete, an usher may bring the basket to the sanctuary without handing it to Father or Deacon.

Commentators will remain in the back of church until about a minute before Mass begins. They will then proceed to the front of church, make the announcements, and then return to the back of church for the procession. If they choose to they are welcome to return to their seats after the reading and/or intentions are complete or they may stay in the sanctuary. If preferred, they may remain in their seats until it is time for the reading.

Seeking Altar Servers

There is a growing need for servers to assist at Masses as more of our young parishioners graduate high school. Training is available to anyone who is interested— boys, girls, men, women. Must have received First Eucharist to serve. Please contact the parish offices if you are interested.

Indoor Walking Available SG Parish Center is open for walking. Hours are Mon-Thurs 8am-noon and Mon-Wed 12:30pm-4pm (please call in advance for the afternoon to guarantee access and availability). There is no charge for walking.

Looking for a winter activity? The pickleball courts in the SG Parish Center gym are available for rent. Never played before? Equipment is available to use and rules are available for reference. Call the

Presentation of Gifts Sign Up

Beginning in the Lenten season, the Greeters will be asking parishioners to bring up the offertory gifts of Bread and Wine. However, we strongly encourage you to sign up in advance if the Mass is being offered for a loved one or if you are celebrating an anniversary or birthday or just because you want to participate in the Mass in a different way.

A small black binder (7"x9") will be at the back of church to sign up for Presentation of Gifts. Find the page with the date of the Mass and write your name on the line that corresponds with the desired Mass time. Thank you!

BISHOP'S APPEAL 2025

The Burden of Debt

Life can be challenging. There are times when people feel lost and don't know where to turn. Thanks to your support, they can find help through Catholic Charities and the many programs and resources within our Diocese.

Jaclyn received a 5-day eviction notice when she was between jobs. She started meeting with a Catholic Charities Financial Health Counselor who helped her prevent her eviction. However, having just started a new job, it would be several weeks before she received her first paycheck. Catholic Charities helped her make a budget to get through that first challenging month so she could make rent the next month and every month. A year later, she is still doing well and is working towards being debt-free!

"Thanks to my financial health counselor at Catholic Charities teaching me about how creditors work, especially in the situation I was in, the stress I was feeling about my situation went away."

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps people like Jaclyn. To make a gift today, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Bringing Hope to the World

Through your gift to the Bishop's Appeal, you support the loving Adoption and Pregnancy Support Services program at Catholic Charities.
