Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: John's disciples approach Jesus with one of the quintessential questions of life: "Is this it?" How are we supposed to know when we have arrived when we don't know the signposts for where we're going? Jesus gives them to us. The kingdom is in our midst when "the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them." This is the kingdom that Jesus proclaims in word and deed and to which he invites us. As we journey onward toward Christmas, the great feast of the Incarnation, let us rededicate ourselves to incarnating the life of Jesus and the kingdom of God in our words and actions.

To Experience: In all things our God brings life from death, healing from illness, light from darkness. Often these saving actions can be missed when our focus is overwhelmed by the other realities of the world crowding in. Where do you see God's saving action taking place here and now in your own life?

1. Looking at the world, your community, and your own life, where could you say, "Here is our God!" as the prophet Isaiah proclaims to the people of Israel?
2. The psalmist tells us, "The Lord gives sight to the blind." We look upon the world from our own perspective and sometimes this can blind us to the needs and concerns of others. Who is God wishing to open your eyes to?
3. The first words from today's second reading from the letter of St. James are "be patient, brothers and sisters." When in your life have you been blessed through embracing patience?
4. The disciples of John the Baptist ask Jesus, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" In our culture, what do you think are the greatest temptations that lead us to turn our gaze from Christ and to search for fulfillment elsewhere?

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Saturday, December 17, we will be reviving an Advent custom that would have been very popular among the Germans Catholics who settled this area in the 1800s. We will gather in the morning to celebrate a "Rorate Mass."

The season of Advent falls each year in the dark month of December and it is a month when we see the general theme of the liturgical season being echoed in nature. Darkness has crept over the world, and is increasing each day. Yet, there is hope. Soon the days will begin to lengthen and the sun will conquer the night. The earth reveals that there is a light in this dark place and that Light reigns victorious.

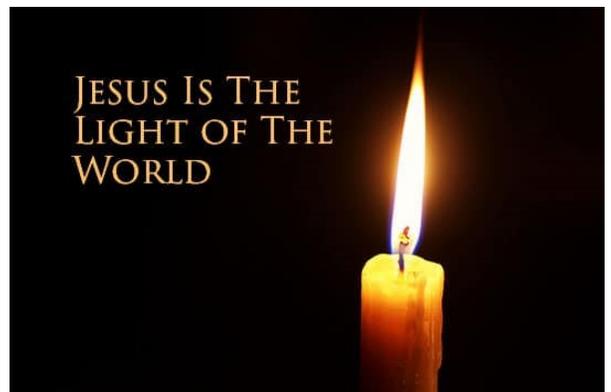

The Church makes this truth more visible with an ancient tradition (often forgotten) called the "Rorate" Mass. This Advent Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary receives its name from the first words of the opening chant in Latin, "Rorate caeli," or in English "Shower, O heavens."

Traditionally, this Mass is celebrated in the dark, only illuminated by candlelight and typically just before dawn.

The symbolism of this Mass abounds and is a supreme expression of the Advent season. First of all, since the Mass is normally celebrated right before dawn, the warm rays of the winter sun slowly light up the church. If timed correctly, by the end of Mass the entire church is filled with light by the sun. This speaks of the general theme of Advent, a time of expectation eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Son of God, the Light of the World.

I hope that you respond to this invitation to participate in Mass and revive this beautiful custom. I pray that your hearts are open to the dawning Light that represents Christ the Light, and that you may be filled with His Light.

*Blessings,
Father Bill*

Dear Friends,

In the Gospel, we hear how Jesus' new commandment to love one another calls us each day to consider our lives and the world around us. It calls us to service in our families, our parishes, our communities and our world. The one by One campaign is a concrete way to respond to Jesus' new commandment of love. Through transformative ministries, our parish and our Diocese we can better answer Jesus' call to us as disciples.

This Weekend, is the last weekend we will be inviting families to join us by participating in the one by One campaign. Gifts can be pledged over five years. Please pray about what sacrifice is right for you and your family.

Because of the dedicated support of our parishioners, this campaign will provide the resources for Holy Trinity Parish to complete the window project and construct a new parish office. The campaign will also provide the resources for St. Gregory Parish to renovate the rectory and create a gathering space.

To learn more about the one by One campaign contact the parish office or visit the one by One campaign website at one.catholicfoundationgb.org today! Thank you for your continued prayers and support.

May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly.
Fr. Bill

Our Lady of Guadalupe: Feasting the Patroness of the Americas

The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (December 12) is my favorite Marian feast day of the year! (I'm doing my happy dance. While typing. I don't want to brag but that takes serious skills.) Who is Our Lady of Guadalupe? What does she have to do with Advent? What are some ways to honor her feast day?

The Story

Our Lady of Guadalupe is the name of a Church-approved apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which took place in Mexico in December 1531. She appeared on the hill of Tepeyac to Juan Diego, an Aztec convert to Christianity. Juan Diego was on his way to Mass when he heard beautiful music and a woman's voice calling his name in his native language. He followed the sound to the hillside where he encountered a beautiful Aztec maiden emanating golden light and standing in a cloud upon a crescent moon. The beautiful Lady addressed Juan Diego as her little son and told him not to fear because she was his Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. She asked Juan Diego to tell the bishop to build a church on the hill so all may know her motherly affection and consolation.

He rushed to the home of the Spanish bishop in Mexico City. Juan had to wait hours and hours for an audience with him and, when he was finally allowed to see him, the bishop and his advisors scoffed at the poor, illiterate Aztec man who claimed to be speaking on Our Lady's behalf. He was sent away and returned to the hill brokenhearted. He begged the Blessed Mother to send someone more important to do her bidding — someone the bishop would take seriously. She reassured him that he was the messenger she wanted. He returned to the bishop who was becoming annoyed by Juan's claims. The bishop told Juan that if his Lady was indeed the Mother of God she would need to provide the bishop with a sign.

When Juan Diego returned to the Lady, she told Juan Diego to pick roses from the hillside to put in his tilma (cactus fiber cloak). Juan found the normally barren hillside covered in Castilian roses, a miracle in and of itself considering that the growing season had long passed and these roses were not native to Mexico. The Blessed Mother arranged the flowers in Juan's cloak and told him to show no one until he reached the bishop. Juan ran all the way to the bishop's home. When he was allowed an audience, he opened his tilma and roses cascaded to the floor filling the room with their fragrant aroma. As the roses fell from the tilma, the image of the Lady Juan had spoken with on the hillside appeared on the simple cloak. The bishop fell to his knees before the miraculous image. A church was built on the very spot where the Blessed Mother appeared. Even after 500 years, the cactus fiber tilma (which should have disintegrated after 20 years!) bearing her image remains in perfect condition. The Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City is the most visited Marian shrine in the world!

Advent Feast

Why is Our Lady of Guadalupe an important part of our Advent preparation? The beautiful Lady of Tepeyac Hill reminds us that all of us — no matter our age, gender, race, or background — are called to be bearers of Christ. Just as Our Lady carried Jesus in her womb, we are called to carry him in our hearts this Advent. Just as she beckoned Juan Diego, a poor and aged Aztec deemed inconsequential by those in authority, she summons each of us. We each have a role to play in bringing Christ into the world. We are called to cultivate a place for him in our hearts this Advent.

Make it count

Family fiestas and liturgical celebrations are important ways of honoring Our Lady's feast, but why not show your love by doing something charitable for those closest to her heart — the poor, forgotten, and little? You can give the gift of fruit trees to a family in need, contribute toward a micro-loan for a woman working to pull her family out of poverty, volunteer at your parish's food pantry or soup kitchen, or visit an elderly neighbor. Invite family and friends over for a potluck supper. Ask everyone to bring a dish to share and ten small items (bibs, hats, socks, onesies, toiletries, rosaries, holy cards, etc) to put in gift bags for women experiencing crisis pregnancies. Deliver them to your local pregnancy center. Remember, Our Lady was a young, unwed expectant mother and she appeared to Juan Diego as a pregnant teenage girl!

Wishing you a happy and blessed Feast Day!
