Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The opening scene in which this parable is told is almost as charged with meaning as the parable itself. Jesus is addressing it to "those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else." Not only are those who think so highly of themselves righteous, but the necessary result of their self-satisfaction is that those around them are despised. The Pharisee in the parable isn't just pleased with himself; his pleasure in his own deeds twists his perception of those in his community so much that he views them as lesser than himself.

To Experience: The four groups that Sirach names are three people who are marginalized by circumstance and one who makes a choice to serve God. It's possible to see that all whom God hears falls into one of these four categories. "Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed."

1. Are you the Pharisee or the tax collector? Which traits do you feel you share with one or the other today?
2. Do you consider yourself to be righteous? Why or why not? How do you feel about this?
3. When you "serve the poor," whom do you think of first? How does God call you to continue to "serve the poor"?
4. Do you consider yourself to be poor? In what way?

Year of Mary October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last week we discussed the historic reason why October is the month of the Rosary. In last week's homily, I shared how prayer can be a powerful spiritual weapon, and this was demonstrated at the Battle of Lepanto. There are many other historic examples of the Christian faithful using the Rosary as a powerful spiritual weapon.

Do you pray the Rosary? For generations the Rosary was the most popular prayer among Catholics. It is easy to learn. The twenty mysteries of the Rosary are a summary of the life of Jesus and Mary. It has a familiar rhythm that is consoling in moments of need. Generations of people have found the Rosary to be a powerful intercessory prayer. Yet, in the past few decades the Rosary has fallen out of fashion.

I was not taught how to pray the Rosary as a child. It was not prayed in my family, and I was not taught how to pray the Rosary in Religious Education. I did not learn how to pray the Rosary until I was in college. For me the Rosary started as a spiritual chore. At first, I found it to be monotonous, and I felt self-conscious praying the Rosary. Yet, it grew on me. And I have found praying the Rosary to be powerful. When someone asks me to pray for them, it is the Rosary that I most often turn towards. When my mind is unsettled and distracted, the Rosary draws me into prayer. Now the Rosary is no longer a chore, but an anchor of my prayer life, and something that I cannot live without.

The Rosary originated about 800 years ago. Pious legend tells us that the Blessed Virgin Mary, herself, appeared to St. Dominic and shared with him the Rosary. She encouraged all Catholics to pray the Rosary. Since that time almost all of the Popes and many saints have continually recommended the praying of the Rosary. It is a simple prayer, but it is "a spiritual lightning rod" that draws down grace through the intercession of Mary.

How do we pray the Rosary? Take the Rosary one step at a time. There are two components to praying the Rosary. The first are the vocal prayers, that is the Our Father's, Hail Mary's, and Glory Be's that are repeated. The Rosary beads are simply there to keep track of our prayers. The second component of the Rosary is the meditation upon the Mysteries. There are twenty mysteries, organized into four sets: Joyful Mysteries, Luminous Mysteries, Sorrowful Mysteries, and the Glorious Mysteries. If you do not currently pray the Rosary, focus on the vocal prayers first. Get yourself comfortable using the beads to keep track of your prayers. Muscles grow stronger and bigger through repeated and consistent exercises, and so the Rosary's power is found in repeated and consistent recitation.

Often people stop praying the Rosary because they do not feel like they are getting anything out of it. Remember first of all, the effect is found in consistency and commitment. Going to lift weights once will make no difference on the body. We will notice no difference by praying the Rosary once. But consistently lifting weights, transforms the body over time. Just so, consistently praying the Rosary transforms the soul. Second, remember that you are not praying the Rosary primarily for yourself. With each decade of the Rosary, pick-out a specific intention in which to offer up that decade of the Rosary. Even if you do not feel like you are getting much of the Rosary, pray it with fervor because the person that you are praying for will be blessed. Pray the Rosary not primarily for yourself, but for others.

I will keep you in prayer.

*Blessings,
Father Bill*

Did You Know These 8 Things About Confirmation?

1. Confirmation is the Completion of Baptism

Baptism marked the start of your relationship with Christ. Your soul changed permanently and you were filled with grace from God. Through Confirmation, the Holy Spirit strengthens these graces, gives you more of them, and seals them all inside you – like a carefully wrapped present! This brings you closer to Christ and better prepares you to face the daily challenges of Christian life.

2. Confirmation Increases the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Want to know more about these graces sealed inside of you? They are called the Gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, fortitude, piety, counsel, and fear of the Lord. You've had these gifts since your Baptism, but Confirmation deepens and strengthens them since it draws you even closer to Christ and the greater Catholic community. Think about it like a team of basketball players. It's possible to get some good results from a team of players that just met their coach and have only played together a few times, but you'll get great results from a team of close-knit players that have played under the same coach for years. Baptism is like being introduced to the team (the Church) and your coach (Jesus). Confirmation is like the years of practice and team-building that it takes to really bring a team together.

3. A Mission from God: Operation Confirmation

Did you know that when you receive the sacrament of Confirmation you accept a mission from God? In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus tells His disciples to baptize all nations in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. Later on, the Holy Spirit descends upon the disciples at Pentecost and they receive the courage to take on the mission Jesus gave them earlier. Confirmation is your own personal Pentecost. The Holy Spirit descends upon you and you accept the same challenge given by Jesus to the disciples.

4. Chrism is Much More Than a Sweet-Smelling Oil

Chrism, the perfumed oil that the bishops use to make the sign of the cross on your forehead, signifies a lot more than just a shower in your future. It helps show a connection to your Baptism – the first time you were anointed with oil. It shows healing and cleansing too. Believe it or not, it also signifies preparation to do spiritual battle with the Devil. Why? Oil is slippery and, in ancient times, warriors would cover themselves in it before battle to make it difficult for their enemies to grab them. In other words, Chrism makes it hard for the Devil to grab you!

5. Why My Forehead?

You probably wondered this as it dripped down your face during your Confirmation. St. Thomas Aquinas explained that this is because your forehead is part of your face – the first thing people see when they talk to you. Having the Chrism spread on your forehead proclaims to the world that the first thing people should notice about you is your faith in Christ.

6. What's in a Name?

Many Catholics adopt the name of a biblical figure or saint that they find inspiring at their Confirmation. This shows your intention to copy their dedication to God. It makes you a heavenly friend who will pray and intercede for you on your Christian journey. Other Catholics choose not to select a new name and stick with the one that they were baptized with to show Confirmation's close connection with Baptism!

7. Confirmation is Ancient

Faithful people have been receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation for almost 2,000 years. There are even examples of it recorded in the Bible! In Acts 19, Paul the Apostle lays his hands (just like the bishop does during Confirmation today) on a group of believers and the Holy Spirit descends upon them. So, when you are Confirmed, you are sharing in an ancient and rich tradition that millions of Catholics have participated in throughout history.

8. You Aren't Alone

To be Confirmed, you must select a sponsor to help guide you through the process. This person is a great example of what it means to be a Catholic. They pray for you and provide a support system for your faith. Confirmation certainly makes you better equipped to handle life as a Christian, but that doesn't mean things will always be easy. During these more difficult times, don't forget about your sponsor.
