Public Input: Nothing to report

Old Business: Sunday School- Ruth received responses from 7 families: 2 not interested, 3 interested but not in leading, 2 no-answers. With no parental lead, Miranda has volunteered to lead Sunday school, with teaching materials provided by Patti, on a trial basis. Sunday school will occur on "Donut Sunday" (or 3rd Sunday) starting in January. Rural Life day progress; Father is meeting with Lou Ann Herzog before Christmas. Fraud situation update; Bank First National will not cover our loss but it will be submitted to insurance and they will cover the financial loss. We are looking into other Banking options. Friday office hours will remain closed to public- this will allow Barb uninterrupted work time.-Karen & Ruth

New Business: Annual meeting follow-up and safety plan- Jack Valukas was mentioned as a resource in implementing a safety plan. Father will contact Jack. Father has noticed a suspicious car in the back of our parking lot. It was suggested to inform the athletic club and also have Father follow up with the Sheriff's Department. Day of Prayer follow-up; no final numbers to report yet but it was a good day.

Five Alive Practices, from Bishop's Pastoral Letter, will be made available to all parishioners. Starting in January, Lectio Divino will be first practice and will be highlighted with a column in the bulletin and one announcement before Mass.

Changing Parish council meeting time to 6:00; 1 in favor the rest are flexible on time.

Website Host; Barb collected 3 options/quotes. Bublitz was chosen to host the Holy Trinity website. -Miranda & Karen and approved by all.

Next Meeting: January 9, 7:15pm

Motion to adjourn; Karen & Ruth

Meeting adjourned with closing prayer by Deacon Gary respectfully submitted by Nancy Augustine, secretary
