Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Jesus' image of himself as vine and us as branches is a lovely pastoral image, but it includes some hard truths. Jesus warns us that those who do not bear fruit will be removed from the vine, and even those that remain will be subjected to pruning. Pruning is a fascinating practice; beginner gardeners are often hesitant to cut large portions off their carefully grown plants. But plants respond to losing limbs by putting more energy forth to regrow. Their production is increased by having segments of themselves detached. We, too, often need to prune away those things that keep us from fruitfulness. Our lives can become cluttered with possessions and attachments that do not truly serve God. When we detach from those things, it makes more space for God to work in our lives and makes more space to become more fully ourselves, bearing beautiful fruit for God.

To Experience: Jesus says in the gospel that we can ask for whatever we want and have it done for us, but that is not usually our experience with prayer. God's answer to prayers can seem cryptic and often unfolds slowly over time. God refuses all our attempts to make God into a vending machine that dispenses all our desires. God rather wills our good always, using our vocations and commitments to draw us ever closer to holiness.

1. What in your life might need pruning away? What could you detach from in order to bear more fruit for God?
2. How have you experienced God answering prayers? How have you come to understand God's presence in prayers that seem to go unanswered?
3. To whom do you feel called to preach God's love and kindness? How could you extend God's love to them through both word and deed?

Jesus comes to you in Holy Communion to feed you, love you, and fill you with His grace. May you always welcome His loving presence. Happy First Holy Communion!

*"But you, take courage!
Do not let your hands be weak,
for your work shall be rewarded."
2 Chronicles 15:7*

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On Monday, a number of parishioners from both parishes gathered to discuss parish outreach. I was very encouraged by the meeting and extend my gratitude to everyone who participated. With this kind of commitment and sense of ownership, the good things that God has started here, will continue.

Changing parish leadership is always challenging. What I have seen and experienced during my time here is that these parishes rise to the challenges before them. Both parishes routinely complete their respective Bishop Appeal goals in record time. Both parishes completed the one-by-One goal.

This week, I lay another challenge before you. This is not asking for money. This is asking for time and talent. Both parishes are looking for additional members for their Pastoral Councils. The purpose of these councils is to provide guidance and advice to the pastor and to translate good ideas into good actions. A Pastoral Council can have up to twelve members and both parishes should have full councils.

In addition, each parish has specific committee needs. Holy Trinity Parish needs two additional members for the buildings and grounds committee. St. Gregory needs four to five members for the cemetery committee.

Ask yourself about the gifts you received and how you can use them to make these parishes a better place. If you are interested in any of these councils or committees, contact your respective parish office. We will be gathering nominations for pastoral council members at all the Masses on the weekend of May 11-12, 2024, but names can be submitted earlier.

*"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace."
1 Peter 4:10*

Thank you in advance for your generous service.

*Blessings,
Father Bill*

Training for Ministers Who Bring Communion to the Homebound

Bishop Ricken has asked that all parishes look at the ways that we distribute Holy Communion, both in the context of the celebration of Mass and bringing Holy Communion to the homebound. As part of the bishop's initiative, our parishes will be offering training for those who bring Communion to the homebound on Wednesday, May 22, 2024 at 6:00pm at St. Gregory Parish Center.

This training includes those who already bring Communion to the homebound, and those who are newcomers to this ministry. This training is mandatory. If you would like to register for the training, or have any other questions, please contact the parish office.

Body & Blood of Christ

Communion Under Both Kinds

One of the most frequent questions that I have been asked since I arrived at Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes was the distribution of the Precious Blood again be offered to the lay faithful.

The bishop, not the priest, has the authority to offer the Precious Blood, so we have been waiting on Bishop Ricken to make his determination. Recently, Bishop issued his guidelines for distributing the Precious Blood to the lay faithful in a three-page document that reviews the history and theology of distributing the Precious Blood. For the sake of space, the whole document will not be printed in the bulletin, but will be available on the parish websites.

The bishop has allowed the Precious Blood to be distributed on the Sunday of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi). We will be offering the Precious Blood at all parish Masses that weekend.

In addition, the Bishop will allow the distribution of Holy Communion under both kinds at the following liturgical celebrations:

- Corpus Christi Sunday (all Masses)
- Christ the King Sunday (all Masses)
- Christmas Mass (only at the Mass “during the night”)
- Holy Thursday Easter (only at the Vigil)
- Divine Mercy Sunday (all Masses)
- Pentecost Sunday (all Masses)
- Trinity Sunday (all Masses)
- First Holy Communion (only the first communicants)
- Wedding Masses (only the bride and groom)
- Mass celebrating the patronal feast of the parish
- Mass on the anniversary of the dedication of the of the church
