Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The transfiguration of Jesus is a momentary glimpse for the apostles into a greater reality – the dazzling divinity of Jesus in conversation with Moses and Elijah, signifying the Law and the Prophets. While the beginning of the Father's interruption echoes the announcement heard at the baptism of Jesus, there is a new addition at the end: "listen to him." Sometimes, as in this gospel episode, God's voice is this clearly heard; at others, it's more difficult to discern. When we hear the voice of God, whether in the Scriptures, the timely advice of a trusted friend, or a quiet nudge from the silence, are we willing to listen or to follow where it leads? While the transfiguration is a major revelation of Jesus' true nature, Jesus rarely if ever performs a miracle for its own sake. In this moment, Jesus' own transfiguration reveals him as the true Word of God, the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets. If we listen to Jesus, he can transfigure us into his own brothers and sisters, children of God, that we too may shine like the sun.

To Experience: Lent can seem like a time of deprivation and austerity, and in one sense, it is. Lent centers on the practice of fasting, among others. However, fasting is not something we do for its own sake. In place of the smaller things we give up, we can recognize the greater generosity of God instead, who desires to fill our hearts with good things.

1. The apostles are initially afraid of the transfigured Jesus. Have you ever been afraid of God's presence in your life? Why?
2. The Second Letter to Timothy encourages us to bear hardship for the gospel, knowing that God will offer us his strength. Where has God shown help to you in this first week of Lent?

Hear to Serve....

Who Do We Belong To?

"The Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being."

And so it began, God created mankind out of the clay of the ground, dirt if you will, and when he breathed into man's nostrils, God gave us a soul. God did not do this for any of His other creations, only mankind. However, as today's first reading points out, it was not long until man dirtied that soul.

At our Lenten study group, we have been watching the program, "The Search." The episode this week focused on who we are. The program highlighted so many mind-blowing facts. The human body is an amazing creation to say the least. Did you know our eyes can perceive over one million colors? If we stretched out our nerves, they would be 45 miles long. That's the equivalent of driving from Manitowoc to Green Bay and back. Our hearts beat 100,000 times a day, and a piece of our brain the size of a grain of sand contains 37 trillion cells. This is amazing to say the least.

The most amazing part of our human makeup is our soul. We can't see it, touch it, smell it, or weigh it. We can't pinpoint a spot in our bodies where it resides, and yet our souls are one with our bodies.

So, what's the big deal about our souls? Aren't our souls just a place to collect our sins until we can go to confession and have our sins wiped away, sort of like keeping score on a chalk board? Our souls are what really animates our bodies. Without our souls, our bodies would become a corpse. It's our souls that connect us to deeper experiences and emotions that transcend everyday life. It's our souls that give us intellect, that give us a will, gives us the ability to understand absolute truth. Our souls give us the ability to choose love, to make love an action rather than a feeling. It's our souls that allow us to seek out God, to know God, and to love and serve God. It is our souls that bring us to eternal life.

As we start this Lenten Season let us examine this wonderful, and amazing gift from God, our souls. If we find our souls to be less than perfect, like Adam and Eve did in the Garden of Eden, let us turn ourselves back to God. Let us remember the words of Responsorial Psalm 51, "Have mercy on me God, in Your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me." Let us use that great gift that Jesus gave us, the Sacrament of Confession, along with a solid prayer life.

Let us ask God to clean our souls so that they may proclaim the truth, that the Lord God formed us out of the clay of the ground and blew into our nostrils His breath of life, and we became living beings. For we belong to God.

Viva Cristo Rey!

Evening Vespers

Holy Trinity invites you to experience and participate in Vespers during Lent. Vespers (also called Evening Prayer) is part of the Liturgy of the Hours. The prayer experience will be held Thursday evenings at 5:30pm (in place of the rosary) prior to the 6pm Mass.

Evening Prayer gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God (see Psalm 141:1).

Bishop's Appeal

On this First Sunday of Lent, Jesus leads us into the desert and reminds us to turn our hearts back to God. Lent begins quietly, but it leads us to the light and hope of Easter: a hope we are called to share with others.

We see this hope in Pam, who came to Catholic Charities after losing her husband, recovering from cancer, and facing financial hardship. With Christ-centered guidance, she found healing and stability. "Without Catholic Charities, I would still be in that despair," she shared.

Lent Prayer Partners

Last weekend, Lenten Prayer Partners were drawn. Take time during Lent to pray for your selected family. If you did not get a card with a name, there are a few still remaining. Look for the basket at the back of church.

Rice Bowls

This Lent, our community will participate in CRS Rice Bowl – connecting our prayers, fasting, and almsgiving to encounter God through our global family. We'll meet, pray for, and learn from families in Ghana, Guatemala, and Timor-Leste who are rising above the challenges of hunger and malnutrition. Pick up your rice bowl at the back of church this weekend.

Washing of the Feet

We need a family or two for Washing of the Feet on Holy Thursday. This ancient rite is a beautiful example of humility

April 2, 6pm at St. Gregory

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the parish office at 920-773-2511 or sgparishoffice@gmail.com

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes stories like Pam's possible and supports faith formation, Catholic schools, deacon formation, and even more ministries throughout our Diocese.

If you've never given before, I invite you to consider making your first gift this year. Even a small gift makes an impact and helps us bring Christ's light to others.

To support the 2026 Bishop's Appeal, use the pledge card mailed to your home, contact the parish office, or visit www.Catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Thank you for your generosity and for helping Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes shine Christ's light this Lent.
