Open Your Eyes to the Light

This Laetare Sunday, the Gospel of the man born blind challenges us to consider: What are we refusing to see?

While the beggar receives physical sight and the spiritual light of Faith, the Pharisees, convinced of their own righteousness, remain trapped in the dark.

Their tragedy wasn't a lack of information, but a hardness of heart that blocked the Truth standing right in front of them.

We all carry "blind spots." We might be blind to the quiet pain of a neighbor, the injustice in our community, or the subtle ways self-centeredness clouds our judgment.

All our cultures, too, often suffer from a blindness that devalues human life and mistakes fleeting pleasure for lasting joy.

To live as "children of light" means more than just following rules; it means allowing Jesus to perform a spiritual surgery on our souls.

This Lent, let us ask the Lord to wash away the mud of our prejudices and pride. When we acknowledge our own blindness, we finally become capable of seeing others as God sees them, not as problems or strangers, but as beloved brothers and sisters.

In Christ,
Fr. Josuva

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Jesus' ministry continues to grow in directness and intensity as we progress toward Holy Week and Jesus' passion and death – "Night is coming when no one can work." We return to the important and universal Johannine images of light and darkness; the second reading from the letter to the Ephesians shares similar imagery. While Jesus heals the bodily sight of the man born blind, the greater concern behind Jesus' action is about spiritual sight – the (formerly) blind man's, the Pharisees' and our own. In response to the question of his disciples, Jesus ironically responds that God's works will be made visible through this man born blind. It is in "darkness" that Jesus, the Light of the World, is able to shine brightest, but this requires eyes of faith to see. Jesus asks the healed man, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He does and worships Jesus, able to see his true identity. The words and actions of Jesus in the gospels demand an answer from us as well. Do we see Jesus as he is?

To Experience: As the Pharisees fail to recognize their spiritual blindness, we are reminded that it can also be a challenge to recognize the areas where we fall short. We necessarily do not know what we do not know, and often we find that we cannot heal our own blindness – this is the task of Jesus and those around us. In the silence of prayer, God can open our eyes to the ways in which we choose against God's love for us. Other people can also help us see more clearly, and we have that same responsibility to be "light in the Lord" for the people in our lives.

1. Psalm 23 speaks of the Lord's generous feast and anointing with oil. Where can you recognize God's kindness in your experience of Lent?

Ways to Celebrate Laetare Sunday

- Visit your "mother" church. Follow the English tradition of returning to the church of your baptism on this day.
- Give your mother flowers. In many parts of the world, children present their mothers with flowers and small gifts, a custom that ties beautifully into the themes of joy and gratitude.
- Light a rose-colored candle. Bring the color of the day into your prayer time or family meal with a rose candle.
- Switch out your purple décor for rose. A simple but meaningful swap for the week.
- Decorate your table with pink roses. Let the table reflect the joy of the day.
- Make a rose-colored dessert. Strawberry or raspberry treats, rose-colored macarons, or cakes with pink icing or rose petals all fit the occasion beautifully.
- Bake a traditional Simnel cake. The English have long enjoyed Simnel cake on this day, a rich, spiced fruitcake filled with dried fruits and topped with marzipan. It is decorated with eleven marzipan balls, representing the eleven faithful apostles (Judas excluded).

Evening Vespers

Holy Trinity invites you to experience and participate in Vespers during Lent. Vespers (also called Evening Prayer) is part of the Liturgy of the Hours. The prayer experience will be held Thursday evenings at 5:30pm (in place of the rosary) prior to the 6pm Mass. Evening Prayer gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Lent Prayer Partners

Say a prayer this week for your Prayer Partner Family.

Suggestion: Pick one extra thing to give up this week to offer as a spiritual sacrifice for your prayer partner.

Bishop's Appeal: Impacting the Lives of Children

The future of our Church needs young people to be alive in their faith today. Through the many education and faith formation programs of our Diocese, we teach children to know and love Jesus.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal allows students in Catholic schools, parish faith formation programs, and youth ministry to draw closer to Christ and each other on a regular basis. Young people formed in Catholic education are the future of our Church and are good citizens in our communities.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes a difference in the Catholic education of children across our 16-county diocese. To make a gift today, contact your parish, make a gift online at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy at 920-272-8123.

Thank you for helping Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes and our Diocese share the light of Christ.

The Story of St. Joseph

The Bible pays Saint Joseph the highest compliment: he was a "just" man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts. When the Bible speaks of God "justifying" someone, it means that God, the all-holy or "righteous" one, so transforms a person that the individual shares somehow in God's own holiness, and hence it is really "right" for God to love him or her. In other words, God is not playing games, acting as if we were lovable when we are not.

By saying Joseph was "just," the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God. The rest we can easily surmise. Think of the kind of love with which he wooed and won Mary, and the depth of the love they shared during their marriage.

It is no contradiction of Joseph's manly holiness that he decided to divorce Mary when she was found to be with child. The important words of the Bible are that he planned to do this "quietly" because he was "a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame" (Matthew 1:19).

The just man was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God—in marrying Mary, in naming Jesus, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, in the undetermined number of years of quiet faith and courage.

Reflection

The Bible tells us nothing of Joseph in the years after the return to Nazareth except the incident of finding Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:41–51). Perhaps this can be taken to mean that God wants us to realize that the holiest family was like every other family, that the circumstances of life for the holiest family were like those of every family, so that when Jesus' mysterious nature began to appear, people couldn't believe that he came from such humble beginnings: "Is he not the carpenter's son? Is not his mother named Mary...?" (Matthew 13:55a). It was almost as indignant as "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" (John 1:46b).

Thank you to everyone who attended one of the kickoff events. The events served as an introduction to Stewardship as a way of life. The three fundamental pillars of Stewardship that we'll be diving into as parishes are Prayer, Service, and Sharing.

From March – May, our parishes will focus on the pillar of prayer. Prayer is essential to developing a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. No matter where you are in your prayer life – whether it's nearly nonexistent or you pray the Rosary and read the Bible daily – the question is, "How can you grow?"

Various prayer opportunities are being offered throughout Lent in which you are strongly encouraged to attend and participate in (see Lent page). Additional prayer suggestions, participation opportunities, and encouraging words from fellow parishioners will continue throughout the Easter season.

Watch the bulletin and the bulletin board at the back of each church for current information, new ideas, and encouraging words.

Virtue of the Month: Fortitude

Fortitude means strength in three ways — courage to make the right choices, perseverance in goodness over time and with lasting effort, and patience when things are tough.
