Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The transfiguration of Jesus is a momentary glimpse for the apostles into a greater reality – the dazzling divinity of Jesus in conversation with Moses and Elijah, signifying the Law and the Prophets. While the beginning of the Father's interruption echoes the announcement heard at the baptism of Jesus, there is a new addition at the end: "listen to him." Sometimes, as in this gospel episode, God's voice is this clearly heard; at others, it's more difficult to discern. When we hear the voice of God, whether in the Scriptures, the timely advice of a trusted friend, or a quiet nudge from the silence, are we willing to listen or to follow where it leads? While the transfiguration is a major revelation of Jesus' true nature, Jesus rarely if ever performs a miracle for its own sake. In this moment, Jesus' own transfiguration reveals him as the true Word of God, the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets. If we listen to Jesus, he can transfigure us into his own brothers and sisters, children of God, that we too may shine like the sun.

To Experience: Lent can seem like a time of deprivation and austerity, and in one sense, it is. Lent centers on the practice of fasting, among others. However, fasting is not something we do for its own sake. In place of the smaller things we give up, we can recognize the greater generosity of God instead, who desires to fill our hearts with good things.

1. The apostles are initially afraid of the transfigured Jesus. Have you ever been afraid of God's presence in your life? Why?
2. The Second Letter to Timothy encourages us to bear hardship for the gospel, knowing that God will offer us his strength. Where has God shown help to you in this first week of Lent?

Sacred Season of Lent

Dear Friends,

The season of Lent is considered Sacred because it is a 40-day period of prayer, fasting, and repentance that prepares us for the grand celebration of Easter, commemorating the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It reflects the 40 days Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness, symbolizing spiritual reflection, sacrifice, and renewal.

What do we need to do in this Sacred Season?

1. We need to purify and renew our lives during the period of Lent by repentance, which means expressing sorrow for sins by turning away from occasions of sin and making a right turn to God.

We need to express our repentance by becoming reconciled with God daily, by asking for forgiveness from those whom we have offended and by giving unconditional forgiveness.

2. We need to offer prayerful fasting and acts of penance for our sins, following the example of Jesus before his public ministry.

Fasting reduces our "spiritual obesity" or the excessive accumulation of "fat" in our soul in the form of evil tendencies, evil habits, and evil addictions.

Fasting also gives us additional moral and spiritual strength and encourages us to share our blessings with the needy. It offers us more time to be with God in prayer. It encourages us to share our food and goods with the needy.

Fasting also makes our minds clearer and more receptive to receiving the sacred nourishment of God's Word in Scripture and in Holy Eucharist.

The Season invites us to experience the Sacredness in our lives. Let us prepare ourselves...

In Christ,
Fr. Josuva

Evening Vespers

Holy Trinity invites you to experience and participate in Vespers during Lent. Vespers (also called Evening Prayer) is part of the Liturgy of the Hours. The prayer experience will be held Thursday evenings at 5:30pm (in place of the rosary) prior to the 6pm Mass.

Evening Prayer gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God (see Psalm 141:1).

Lent Prayer Partners

Take time during Lent to pray for your selected family. If you did not get a card with a name, there are a few still remaining. Look for the basket at the back of church.

Rice Bowls

A Time of Preparation: CRS Rice Bowl brings Catholics across the United States together each Lent to respond to global hunger and poverty through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. During this holy season, let us recommit to sharing bread for life with our global family so that all people can reach their God-given potential.

Lenten Penance Services

Penance services will begin at stated start time and include a scripture reading, a brief homily, and examination of conscience.

Additional priests will be available at each service for individual confession.

Thursday, March 19 4pm – 5:30pm (HT)
Wednesday, March 25 6pm – 7:30pm (SG)

Bishop's Appeal: Be the Light for Our Community

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father. – Matthew 5:14-16

Jesus calls us to Be the Light—a light that brings hope and healing to those around us. The Bishop's Appeal helps make this possible through Catholic Charities, faith formation at Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes and even more ministries that support people across our Diocese.

If you have already given, thank you. If you have never given before, I invite you to consider making your first gift this year. Every gift makes a difference.

Those who are able may join the Crozier Society with a gift of $500 or more, helping these ministries reach even more people.

Please prayerfully consider supporting the 2026 Bishop's Appeal by using your pledge card or visiting www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Thank you for helping Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes and our Diocese share the light of Christ.

Be the LIGHT
for couples looking to grow their family

Through your gift to the Bishop's Appeal, you support the loving Adoption and Pregnancy Support Services program at Catholic Charities.

Young women are able to create adoption plans, and adoptive parents are able to realize their dream of growing their family.

You are the light for so many families through your gift to the 2026 Bishop's Appeal.

Please give generously at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give

Saint Highlight: St. Katharine Drexel
Feast Day: March 3

If your father is an international banker and you ride in a private railroad car, you are not likely to be drawn into a life of voluntary poverty. But if your mother opens your home to the poor three days each week and your father spends half an hour each evening in prayer, it is not impossible that you will devote your life to the poor and give away millions of dollars. Katharine Drexel did that.

Born in Philadelphia in 1858, she had an excellent education and traveled widely. As a rich girl, Katharine also had a grand debut into society. But when she nursed her stepmother through a three-year terminal illness, she saw that all the Drexel money could not buy safety from pain or death, and her life took a profound turn.

Saint Katharine Drexel had always been interested in the plight of the Indians, having been appalled by what she read in Helen Hunt Jackson's A Century of Dishonor. While on a European tour, she met Pope Leo XIII and asked him to send more missionaries to Wyoming for her friend Bishop James O'Connor. The pope replied, "Why don't you become a missionary?" His answer shocked her into considering new possibilities.

Back home, Katharine visited the Dakotas, met the Sioux leader Red Cloud and began her systematic aid to Indian missions.

Saint Katharine Drexel could easily have married. But after much discussion with Bishop O'Connor, she wrote in 1889, "The feast of Saint Joseph brought me the grace to give the remainder of my life to the Indians and the Colored." Newspaper headlines screamed "Gives Up Seven Million!"

After three and a half years of training, Mother Drexel and her first band of nuns—Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored—opened a boarding school in Santa Fe. A string of foundations followed. By 1942, she had a system of black Catholic schools in 13 states, plus 40 mission centers and 23 rural schools. Segregationists harassed her work, even burning a school in Pennsylvania. In all, she established 50 missions for Indians in 16 states.

Two saints met when Saint Katharine Drexel was advised by Mother Cabrini about the "politics" of getting her order's Rule approved in Rome. Her crowning achievement was the founding of Xavier University in New Orleans, the first Catholic university in the United States for African Americans.

At 77, Mother Drexel suffered a heart attack and was forced to retire. Apparently, her life was over. But now came almost 20 years of quiet, intense prayer from a small room overlooking the sanctuary. Small notebooks and slips of paper record her various prayers, ceaseless aspirations, and meditations. She died at 96 and was canonized in 2000.

Knights of Columbus Council 16729

- A $50 memorial was sent to Holy Resurrection Monastery in memory of Abbot Nicholas Zachiriadis Emeritus, recently deceased council member.
- The annual K of C Brat Fry is set for Saturday, May 9, in Valders.
- After each Mass on the weekend of March 14 & 15, council members will have information available about the Knights of Columbus, along with an open invitation to all men to join.

Join us Wednesday, March 4 for Stations of the Cross at 6pm. Catechists and students will be praying the Stations while members of the Knights of Columbus lead. Afterward, join us at the Soup & bread dinner being served by members of Caring Hearts and Hands in the cafeteria.
