Christian Women News: Calendars are at the back of church. If you have not picked yours up yet, just help yourself. And if you can deliver someone else's, that would be great. Christmas Party, Dec. 1 sign-up sheets are out at both churches. Please join us for a fun evening. No gift exchange…a collection will be taken for The Adoption Coach, an organization in Kiel. Bake Sale will be Dec. 6 after 8am Mass. Looking for all your delicious baked goods.

Holy Trinity Perch Fry News: Raffle Donations Due December 15. Donations received after December 15, will not be printed on the raffle ticket, but will be acknowledged on signage and winner notifications. Cash, gift cards, or gift certificates are preferred. Donations can be given to any committee member or dropped off at the parish office.

Holy Trinity Parish Office has a new email address, effective Oct. 15. holytrinityparish11928@gmail.com. The old email address has been closed.

SG Good Samaritan Fund

As good Christians, we want to help those in need. Thus, we are expanding our fund to the greater community, not just our parish, as was our goal. If you or someone you know would benefit from assistance with utility bills or rent/ mortgage, pick up an application at the office. Applications will be reviewed by the Good Samaritan Committee, who will keep them anonymous.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: While the parable in today's gospel is, on the surface, about the right use of time and treasure, it is also about our image of God and its consequences. The first two servants recognize the freedom that their master has given them and double their original sums. Capitalism and investment are modern creations; there would have been some necessary creativity on the part of the servants to make such a return. The last servant, however, buries the money he receives in the ground, explaining to his master upon his return that he viewed him as a demanding man. This last servant lives in fear, returning the just minimum of what is owed rather than trusting the generosity of his master, who rightly points out that the servant's action does not correspond with his estimation of him. In an unexpected twist, the third servant's talent is given to the servant who already has ten – it was the master's intention to gift the money to the servants all along. God is generous with us, desiring for us to respond in freedom, especially in view of our own judgment.

To Experience: One servant is given five talents; another, three; another, one. All gifts come from the same generous God, and each of us has been tasked to use them for the good of others. Every day, we have opportunities to show love to others, whether in big or small ways, by our words or in actions.

1. What "talents" has God given you to steward? How can you use them creatively in service of others?
2. Where have you witnessed God's generosity in your life? What can you do to show gratitude for these gifts, whether big or small?

Multiplying Our Talents for the Kingdom

In the Gospel for this weekend, we encounter a master who expects a return on his investment. The fearful servant in the parable describes him as a demanding man who "harvests where he did not plant and gathers where he did not scatter."

This powerful imagery challenges us to look closely at how we manage the gifts God has entrusted to us.

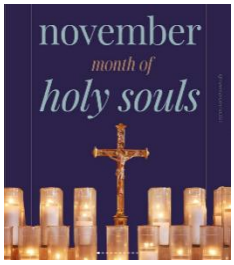

God does not give us talents, time, or resources simply for our own comfort or safekeeping. We cannot bury our responsibilities and talents out of fear. To bury what we have been given is to paralyze the mission of the Church. Instead, we are called to boldly use and multiply them to build the Kingdom of God here on earth.

Jesus reminds us of a spiritual law of the Kingdom: "For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance." When we step out in faith and use our gifts to serve others, God multiplies our efforts.

Taking on small responsibilities with love prepares us to receive even greater responsibilities in God's plan. This week, let us ask ourselves: What talents am I holding back, and how can I actively invest them in our community to bring glory to God?

Fr. Josuva

The Tree of Souls: Remembering Our Departed Loved Ones in November

Participating in the Tree of Souls is simple yet meaningful. You can write down the names of those who have passed away – whether family, friends, or others you want to pray for – and place the names on the tree. As you do so, take a moment to pray for them. Your prayers can be short and from the heart. You might say something like:

"Lord, I pray for (name), that you may forgive their sins and grant them eternal rest in Your presence. Amen."

The Tree of Souls reminds us that love never dies, and neither does our connection to those who have gone before us. By praying for them, we help them on their journey to eternal life and keep their memories alive in our hearts.

Lighting the Advent Wreath

Families or individuals are needed to light the Advent Wreath candles each week at Mass, beginning Saturday, November 28.

Consider lighting the candles …
- if the Mass Intention is for your loved one.
- with your children. It's an experience to remember.
- in memory of a loved one who passed away.
- with your spouse as another way to participate in the Mass.
- because you love Jesus!

Call the parish office (HT 773-2380 or SG 773-2511) or sign up at the back of church.

Journey to the Heart of Jesus

The Nitty Gritty on Tithing… How do we proceed?

The Catholic Church does not hold a strict legal mandate on a 10% tithe. So, where does that leave us? Christ in his merciful founding of the Catholic Church gave us the instruments we would need to navigate the murky waters that may lay ahead. I am guessing He was thinking among other things about our relationship with money.

According to Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC2043) and Canon 222 of the Code of Canon Law, Catholics are required to help provide for the material needs of the Church (worship, apostolic work, charity and clergy support). Scripture and Church teachings emphasize giving freely, cheerfully, and sacrificially from the heart rather than under coercion or strict legal formulas (2 Corinthians 9:7). Yes, we are counselled to give both joyfully and generously. Many dioceses and resources, such as guidance from Catholic Answers, recommend a guideline of 5% to your local parish and 5% to other Catholic charities, missions or the poor.

There is no way around it. Just like we must dig up our dahlia plants in the cold weather and replant them in the spring to enjoy the many beautiful blossoms, it's time to get out our calculator and simply do the math. Since you are reading this article in our church bulletin my guess is that you are already supporting our church and many other Catholic charities as well. You may be surprised by doing a few calculations how well you are already doing and I sincerely thank you. This is a work we do together. You may, likewise, also discover a bit of an imbalance between your intentions and reality. Now would be the perfect time to make an adjustment in the name of justice and mercy or as a sacrificial act of penance and reparation.

We have many ways to give. Contribute weekly by using cash or check in your church provided envelope or by electronic giving. Contact the parish office to set up either option. Every gift has a direct impact on building utilities, maintenance, missalettes, salaries, etcetera. Recurring donations stabilize our cash flow and make it easier to plan for both our short- and long-term future. Support has been exceptional in our special projects collections, thank you. It is a good time to reevaluate your financial goals for giving when planning your estate. Memorials, wills and a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from a tax deferred retirement account designated to the church are all greatly welcome. Sadly, over time we have lost several of our strong supporters. Is God calling you to take their place?

In Acts 20:35 St Paul says, "remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, "It is more blessed to give than receive." As you peruse the Sharing form that is being made available to you at Mass, please take the action of checking the box to prayerfully discern what giving generously means to you and return the form to church on November 21st or 22nd. May God give you a bountiful harvest of the blessings that come from giving!

From Jan Reindl and Tom Kopanski, Co-chairs: On behalf of the Fall Feast Co-chairs and committee persons, we would like to thank each of you for coming together in support of this important annual event. To those who purchased dinner tickets and raffle tickets, and/or volunteered their time and talents to work in the various capacities for the good of the parish community is very much appreciated. A special thanks goes to those who donated cash and other items. Financial information about the success of the 2026 Fall Feast will be shared at a later date.

From Kay Mueller and Mary Bonde, Kitchen Chairpeople: Approximately 600 meals were served at this year's Fall Feast. Thank you to the volunteers who prepped the food, served the portions, and delivered meals to vehicles. It was another successful year!

A Special Thank You to Donors

Thanks to Meat's Opera Haus for assisting with the broasted chicken, Lakeside Foods for the vegetables, Pine River Dairy for butter, Blattner's Piggly Wiggly for the cookies, United Ministries for bread used in the stuffing, and Dale & Lisa Patek for 10 dozen eggs. We extend appreciation to Christel Sign for donations to update the advertising yard signs. A special note of thanks to the parishioners who 'sponsored' food purchases which helped keep costs in check. Thanks also to Altona Supper Club for providing Gift Cards to be added to the raffle. Thank you to our generous local supporters: Lakeshore Family Funeral Homes, Catholic Financial Life, Halverson Home Inspection, Riesterer & Schnell Inc., T & S Finishing, Meat's Opera Haus, and Friends of the Parish. A special thanks to Catholic Order of Foresters of St. Gregory for sponsoring the raffle! A huge thank you to everyone who sold and/or purchased tickets for the raffle!

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary
Feast Day: November 17

In her short life, Elizabeth of Hungary manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, Elizabeth chose a life of penance and asceticism when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of the common people throughout Europe.

At the age of 14, Elizabeth of Hungary was married to Louis of Thuringia, whom she deeply loved. She bore three children. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her gate.

After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family looked upon her as squandering the royal purse, and mistreated her, finally throwing her out of the palace. The return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne.

In 1228, Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order, spending the remaining few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital which she founded in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi. Elizabeth's health declined, and she died before her 24th birthday in 1231. Her great popularity resulted in her canonization four years later.

Reflection
Elizabeth understood well the lesson Jesus taught when he washed his disciples' feet at the Last Supper: The Christian must be one who serves the humblest needs of others, even if one serves from an exalted position. Of royal blood, Elizabeth could have lorded it over her subjects. Yet she served them with such a loving heart that her brief life won for her a special place in the hearts of many. Elizabeth is also an example to us in her following the guidance of a spiritual director. Growth in the spiritual life is a difficult process. We can play games very easily if we don't have someone to challenge us.
